NEW YORK (A. L.), 5; CLEVELAND, 2. Minus the services of Chase, Laporte and erfeld, the Highlanders played another ine game of ball at American League Park erday and took the measure of the Slevelands, 5 to 2. Chase, still nursing a spiked foot, saw the game from the grand stand, while Elberfeld because he growled over a called strike was banished from the called strike was banished from the te was somewhat under the weather of the humidity and Al Orth was at second base with gratifying ilts. Orth was very much in with three humming singles, a timely ice and a stolen base, at the same time covering his position in a way that made him with the big crowd. When Elberfeld ordered from the field Knight was shifted to short field, where he played brilliant ball, and Catcher Sweeney went to first base, where he made several hair raising plays and was all to the mustard.

His con-ol was so good that he did not give a le base on balls, while in only one inning. Afth, were the Clevelands able to bunch their hits-two singles and a double bagger ing two runs. Behind Manning patched up Highlanders played with remarkable steadiness and at no period of the battle did they show a sign of crumbling defence. Cy Young, who pitched on Thurs-day, was called upon by Manager Lajoie ckle the job again and the old fellow was extremely mystical until the eighth inning, when he went to pieces just long enough to allow the New Yorks to roll up three runs and clinch their victory.

The Clevelands made several fielding bobbles, but only one of them counted in the home team's run making. A left handed top by Lajoie which robbed Keeler of a single in the seventh inning was about the best play of the afternoon. The weather was insufferably hot and the fans discarded to the standard of the Highlanders all the way.

Manning hit Goode with a pitched ball in the first inning and Stovall sacrificed him o second, but he was left there like a statue. In the last half Demmitt opened with a base in balls and Ball fumbled Keeler's grounder. Stovall, however, made a great running on balls and Ball fumbled Keeler's grounder. Stovall, however, made a great running catch of Engle's bunted fly and Demmitt was doubled at second as quick as a wink. Elberfeid had two strikes called on him then and let a wide ball pass the plate without offering to hit at it. Connolly called it the third strike, whereupon Elberfeid allowed some tart comments to come from his lips. Connolly did not wait to hear more than a single sentence before he warned Elberfeid off the field amid a chorus of hoots and catcalls from the crowd. he warned Eiberfeld off the field amid a chorus of hoots and catcalls from the crowd. But Eiberfeld's departure did not unnerve the Highlanders a bit. In their half of the second inning Orth banged out his first single and Knight worked in a neat sacrifice, Stevail to Lajoie, who covered first, but made a wild throw to get Orth at second and the latter reached third, where he remained anchored.

Anight graobed a terrific liner from Goode's bat in the third inning and retired the visitors. Keeler singled with two out in New York's half, but Engle retired on a long fly to Hinchman. Knight again distinguished himself in the fourth by catching a cannon shot from Lajoie on which he doubled Hinchman at first. Sweeney scored New York's first run in the last half of this inning when he drove a clean base hit to right, moved to second on Orth's well placed sacrifice and ran to the plate on Knight's signing two bagger to left. But Knight

New York's first run in the last half of this right, moved to second on Orth's well placed sacrifice and ran to the plate on Knight's sizzling two bagger to left. But Knight was left as Austin was called out on a queer looking third strike and Kleinow fouled to Easterly.

The Clevelands broke the ice in the fifth when with one out Perring and Birmingham singled and both raced home on Ball's sharp double bagger over third base. Manning did not lose his head, however, because of this unexpected rally and the next two men were quickly stowed away. Demmitt promptly tied the score in New, York's half. He hammered out a beautiful three base hit to deep right and could easily have made a home run if Wilson, who was coaching, had not halted him at third when the ball had been hurled aimlessly into the middle of the diamond by Goode. Keeler popped up a little fly which Hinchman caught within a few yards of third base, but when the latter made what looked like a great running catch of Engle's drive in left centre, the ball finally slipping out of his grasp, Demmitt crossed the ban.

With two out in Cleveland's sixth Lajoie singled, but Sweeney made a startling catch of Easterly's liner close to the bag and retired the side. The game remained a tie until the last half of the eighth, when the Highlanders got their eyes on the ball for reached third on Orth's safe hit to right. Knight scratched a single to Ball which sent Sweeney home, and Orth, who had stolen second, galloped to third on Austin's long fly to Goode. Kleinow came along then with a cracking base hit to left which enabled Orth to tally and pu' Knight on third. Kleinow made a prompt brek for second and before the ball could be recurned to the plate Knight got there with the third run of the inning. Easterly was hit on the foot by a foul tip in this inning and gave way to Bemis.

The Clevelands treated the fans to a momentary scare in the ninth when Hinchman

The Clevelands treated the fans to a momentary scare in the ninth when Hinchman singled and Orth fumbled Lajoie's easy grounder. But Manning struck Bemis out, Perring flied to Demmitt and Birmingham forced Lajoie on a strong rap to Knight, who made a fine stop and sent the crowd home happy. The score:

NEW YORK (N. L.), 7; ST. LOUIS (N. L.), 1 Sr. Louis, Aug. 7.-Christy Mathewson found himself fully restored to his pitching faculties this afternoon and the Giants made a decisive conquest of the Cardinals. before the Giants got here, a climb in the percentage ladder which showed they were playing ball that took a good deal of beat ing, but the New Yorks flung them down hard. The Cardinals were easy, but the game spoke more of an all round quicken-ing on the part of the Giants than any weakness on the part of the Cardinals.

and his boys and was out in force this pleas ant afternoon—pleasant by contrast—to see the Cardinals clear the track for the first hope was knocked out in the first inning. Beebe was no more effective against the New Yorks than he usually is. He was greeted with five successive singles in the first inning and knocked off the mound early in the second. The hitting done by the New Yorks was deftly mixed up, a new batting order working smoothly on its first Tenney has a lame foot and is out of Tenney has a lame foot and is out of the game for several days. His absence brought Merkle into the fray, Merkle, however, dropping down in the batting phalanx and Doyle leading off. Doyle was winged on the calf by the first ball pitched and the Giants followed on with a broadside which drove home four runs and put the game in the trophy room. Boss Roger summoned two more of his euphoniously named pitching staff, both Melter and Lauder milk doing better than Beebe, but both being sconed on.

moned two more of his euphoniously named pitching staff, both Melter and Laudermilk doing better than Beebe, but both being scoped on.

Mathewson had speed which left an odor in the air of something burning and as a foil for his speed he had his fadeaway breaking lazily but mysteriously as it dropped below the arc described by the St. Louis bats. It seemed as if he could strike out the batter whenever so disposed and only once did he so far digress from his plan as to allow a hit when a man was on base. A base on balls and a hit in the same inning was his only approach to weakness.

Doyle after being hit in the first inning reached third through the medium of the hit and run process. Seymour scored all the way from second on a bunt. McCormick made the bunt and the ball glided through the grass without Beebe, Byrne or Charles making a move for it. Murray and McCormick advanced an additional base on the St. Louis somnolence, and were batted home by Devilin. Bridwell bunted safely but Merkle struck out and Meyers was despoiled of a hit by Delehanty's smart stop, on which a double play was made.

Konetchy scratched a hit to Devlin in the second inning, but Devlin got even on the next man by making a hard running catch of his foul. Melter pitched capitally and held the Giants in leash until the sixth inning, when McCormick jumped a single over the box, the first hit made off Melter, who went in in the second inning. O'Hara ran for McCormick nown to baselit to the same inning. Byrne tried the waiting game, outguessed Mathewson and walked. An infield out and a hit by Phelps brought him over.

At the instigation of Bresnahan Laudermilk, who is the tallest pitching specimen known to baseball naturalists, went to the box in the seventh inning to see what he could do. The Laudermilky way was a good way—for the Giants. Doyle dodged anything but the joke which he promised to be.

The only time Mathewson had to really extend himself, that is to keep a run away from the plate, was in the seventh inning. Murray backed out to the fence for Delehanty's drive in that direction and did not make a success of his one handed try for the ball. It was a two base hit, and on a reckless return by Murray Delehanty went on to third. There was nobody out at the time and the Giants would not have been hurt much if Delehanty had scored; any kind of a smash would have brought him in Mathewson, however, thought one run was enough for St. Louis and put on the screws. Murphy fouled to Fletcher and two other Cardinals struck out. They never saw the ball and weren't able to locate it by the sound.

There was a screach hit for the Cardinais in the eighth and a clean one in the ninth. In these cases Mathewson left it to his fielders and they wound up the two innings with double plays. The score:

CHICAGO (N. L.), 3; BROOKLYN, 2. CRICAGO, Aug. 7.—Brooklyn lost the opening game of the series with the Chicago Cubs this afternoon, 3 to 2. It was a hard ing game of the series with the Chicago Cubs this afternoon, 3 to 2. It was a hard luck sort of a game to lose at that, for Rucker held the champions to two hits, against five secured off Reulbach by the Dodgers. The Cubs were extremely lucky in getting away with a lead of two runs in the first inning when Sheckard walked and was scored ahead of Schulte when the latter drove out a home run hit.

The Dodgers scared the home team in the ninth linning when a raily gave them two runs and all but tied up the count. Reulbach held them safely up to that inning, but at the start of the ninth Rucker opened with a single and went to second, when Burch was safe on Tinker's error. Clement was retired on a pop to Tinker agrounder to Reulbach. Alperman followed with a single to left field which was just out of the reach of Sheckard. Rucker and Burch scoring. Hunter tried to place a safe one in centre field, but Hofman nipped it after a hard try for the third out.

To-day's victory was the thirteenth straight for Reulbach and the ninth in a row for the Cubs. The score:

and G. Macpherson carried the score to 37 before the latter was run out. A. Brown helped Poyer to bring the total to 78, at which period he was bowled. Then Poyer and A. S. Durrant played the best cricket of the side until the former was "leg before" for 61, a fine performance. Durrant was not out for 31, in which he hit for five fours in succession. At 133 for five wickets the imings was declared.

A. Gunn, for Staten Island, soon reached 20 by five boundary hits. With five wickets down for 44 runs, C. H. Clarke and A. Robinson became associated and played out time a margin of 20 runs in which the bowlers had all the advantage. On the winning side A. Smedley made a good record in both departments, scoring 32, not out, with the bat and capturing three wickets for 30 runs. The most successful bowling, however, was done by J. Critchlow, who had the fine figures of five wickets for 25 runs. For Columbia Oval, J. N. Escobal bowled spiendidly and was rewarded by securing five wickets for 18 runs. The totals: Manhattan, 61: Columbia Oval, 41.

The Brooklyns met with their first reverse in the second section of the league championship series yesterday when the Prospect Park eleven defeated them by 17 runs at the Parade Grounds. A feature was a good innings by J. Parkes, who ran up 32 and made a victory for his side possible. The totals: Brooklyn 11., 74: Prospect Park, 91.

tended the second annual exhibition of the Monmouth County Kenneis Club at Hollywood Park this afternoon. Nine rings were used by the judges in making the awards. Eight were located in front of the grand stand, while the centre of the track was used for judging the larger classes.

Perhaps the crowning event of the show was the final class judged. It was for cups offered by Robert Guggenheim for the best dog or bitch in the show and the best team of four of one breed. Both cups were won by Irish territers owned by the Newry Kennels of Florham Park, N. J. Newry Acushia won as the best dog. PRIZE DOGS AT HOLLYWOOD.

Newry Kennels' Irish Terriers Win Guggenheim Cups.

Long Branch. Aug. 7.—Summer residents along the north Jersey shore attended the second annual exhibition of the Monmouth County Kennels Club at Hollywood Park this afternoon. Nine rings were used by the judges in making the awards. Eight were located in front of the grand stand, while the centre of the track was stand, while the centre with an offer to $20,000 more at $10,000 more at $10 Governor.

Willus Britt, Ketchel's manager, says that the Jeffries-Johnson mill will never take place for the reason that Ketchel will best the negro at Colma in October and furthermore that Jeff will never be in his old form. Britt says that Ketchel will be in perfect condition for Sam Langford and will win decisively.

Willie Lewis and Sailor Burke have gone into strict training for their ten round mivup at the Fairmont A. C. next Friday. If Lewis can best the hardy seaman he will be in line for a mill with Papke, which the Fairmont dub will promptly try to arrange. Lewis and Burke have long been at swords points and there'll be no love lost when they put up their hands.

cently Deserted by Runners. The Empire City track, so recently vacated by the runners, was in tiptop shape for light harness racing yesterday after-noon. A pessimistic few had declared that the course would not be adaptable for the trotters after the thoroughbreds had fin-ished their season there, but quite the contrary appeared to be the case. The time made was good and the races were all well contested.

The occasion was the opening matinee of the New York Driving Club and the immense grandstand and clubhouse were fairly well filled. The programme dragged, however, and like the little brook threatened to go on forever." There were but nine events, but they lasted from 2 o'clock till long after 6, and in some cases the horses were scoring for half an hour. This happened in the eighth event when De Witt C.

WALDO'S SARATOGA SPECIAL

BEATS SWEEP AND HERKIMER WITH PLENTY TO SPARE.

Geene Colt Caught Napping at the Post Belmont's Field Mouse Has Luck in Delaware Ballacalla, Bellwether, Little King and Black Hawk Scieceec.

SABATOGA, Aug. 7.-Nearly 10,000 per-SARATOGA, Aug. 7.—Nearly 10,000 persons saw C. L. Harrison's Waldo win the Saratoga Special, for two-year-olds, six furlongs, in the most impressive style here to-day. Waldo scored his sixth consecutortive victory in the East and was promptly pronounced the champion colt of the year. He was heavily backed at 6 to 5, but James R. Keene's Sweep ruled the favorite at 9 to 10 with John Sanford's Herkimer, the only other startes, quoted at 15. Starter Cassidy released the barrier when Sweep was entirely unprepared, with the result that he did not break until Waldo and Herkimer had gained about three lengths on him. But even this handicap at the post did not figure to a great extent in the defeat of the Keene colt as Waldo was much the best in the opinion of good judges.

Taplin lost no time in taking Herkimer to the front, and setting a fast clip over a slow track Mr. Sanford's colt made the pace until well around the far turn. Waldo was always within striking distance of him, though, with Sweep under a vigorous ride coming rapidly behind. At the head of the stretch Nicol with supreme confidence let Waldo down and the result was electrifying. The big Planudes colt passed Herkimer like a whirlwind in the space of fifty yards and loomed up in the middle of the homestretch a sure winner. Nicol took hold of him near the end and Waldo galloped to the wire with the safest on the rail, got up in time to nail the place in the last jump by a head from the leg kind of a margin in 1:15 4-5. Sweep, closing on the rail, got up in time to nail the place in the last jump by a head from the leg weary Herkimer, whose rider had evidently made too much use of him. Previous winners of the Special were Goldsmith, Irish Lad, Aristocracy, Sysonby, Mohawk II., Salvidere, Colin and Sir Martin.

August Belmont's Field Mouse, 7 to 1, furnished a surprise by winning the Delaware Handicap, at a mile. She had all kinds of racing luck and got the verdiet by a head. But Arondack, 2 to 1, was best and would probably have won had it not been for the interference she suffered as she turned into the stretch. King's Daughter, 4 to 1, led for more than half a mile and then stopped to nothing. So did Danoscare, who was the contender for half the route. Then Field Mouse, sticking close to the rail, saved a lot of ground and under a drivajust lasted long enough to beat Arondack, who was closing with her usual game rush and beat Beaucoup, 3 to 1, an added starter, by two-lengths for the place. The race was run in 1:42 2-5.

Ballacalla, 5 to 1, made a runaway of the Saratoga Steeplechase, at about two miles but tired in the run home on the flat and half from Waterway, a red hot 9 to 10 favorite, whose rider made his effort entirely too late. Grandpa, 6 to 1, was a poor third, but held the others safe at all stages. Starter Cassidy left Reginald, 6 to 1, flat footed at the barrier. The time of the race was 4:20 4-5.

H. G. Bedwell put one over on the talent when Bellwether, neglected at 15 to 1, won the handicap for-all ages, at six furlongs Besom, 12 to 5 favorite, cut out the usual pace but weakened in the stretch, and Bellwether, always close up, rushed to the front to win galloping by two lengths in 1:14. Besom had no trouble in taking the place from Gold Note, a 60 to 1 shot, who came from nowhere and landed third money by a wide marrier. Chief Hayes, 9 to 2, had no speed, while De Mund and King Cobalt, the topweights, both quit.

Little King, 5 to 2, made all the running in the fifth race, for
